BTB MOST VALUABLE PLAYER (MVP)

What is the BTB MVP?

The Be The Ball Tour has been running since BTB1 way back in 2009. Over the years we have competed during the season in various internal and external competitions, with players and teams accumulating points depending on their participation and finishing positions within those contests.

These contests include: NRL Tipping, Horse Racing Tipping, Supercoach Fantasy competitions, major golf tournament tipping and various individual and team related punting contests. To cap it all off of course is our 2-day golf tournament each June Long Weekend – the Mum's Bum Cup.

The goal behind providing these contests over our 48-week season was to not simply have a golf tour at the end of the season, but to stay in touch regularly throughout the year. Men being men, we also like a little bit of competition and banter that comes with such pursuits. Most of our contests verging on the cerebral and lucky as opposed to out and out physical!

In BTB15 we introduced our team's format. The Crocs and Shooters were officially born, and over the next 5 years they competed against each other in our Try Harder Cup (THC) Premiership format, with every player earning points for their team by playing in these competitions over the course of the season.

In BTB10, our anniversary season, the Cattledogs and King Browns became the third and fourth teams to join the BTB fray. Then, in BTB16 (our 15th official touring year) the Wranglers became our fifth competing team.

This is an official record of our Most Valuable Players (MVPs) throughout our history, from BTB5 onwards (records prior to this are sketchy or we didn't play many contests).

The following pages celebrates those BTB men who rose to the top of not only their teams but climbed the competitive summit to emerge as the true champion of that particular season. Over the course of 15+ competitions and 11 months, these individuals became the best of the best.

*MVP includes every contest run per season including all Club Champion contests PLUS all Tattoo Trophy events.

How does the scoring work?

- 1. Every contest entered by a BTB player will earn them at least 1 point towards their individual and team's points tally's.
- 2. If there are 30 members who join a particular competition, the winner of that contest will receive 30 points. Second will receive 29 points, third 28 points. And so on and so forth until the last place runner receives 1 point.
- 3. All of our BTB contests are classified as a Group 1 (multiplier x3); Group 2 (multiplier x2; or Group 3 (no multiplier) event.
- 4. Therefore, if you are the winner of an event with 30 starters, and it is classified as a Group 1 event, you in effect will receive 90 points for that event. (30 x 3 multiplier). Second will receive 87 points, third 84 points and so on.

Group 1 Events...
Mum's Bum Cup
Punter of the Year (POTY)
Big Basket Bet (BBB) Tipping
Big Marn of the Year (BMOY)
* BMOY worth 72 MVP points to winner

Group 2 Events...
DallyM Runner Up Tipping
Stable Wars
NRL Tipping
*For MVP Scoring NRL Tipping is group 3 classified

Group 3 Events...

All Tattoo Trophy events. (E.g. AFL Tipping, Masters Golf etc)

BTB17 saw a new skipper take over the reins of the Shooters and also stamp himself as the MVP champion. A tour veteran have a breakout season after years of mediocre results, and a team dominate like no other we have ever seen in Be the Ball history.

Benzabear had his personal best season ever to win one of the most tightly fought MVP contests ever. He won by just 7 pts from Craig's Carnival, their 48-week battle coming down to the Mum's Bum Cup. Both men made the cut. Both finished top 10, but it was Benzabear's podium finish that garnered him his maiden MVP title. Great stuff Benza!

Outside of Benzabear and Carnival, Bigwyn Neil had a ripper season in just his second BTB start, to grab third spot. He was ultra consistent across the entire season's events, the only player to finish top 5 in both the Club Champion events but also the Tattoo Trophy. Fabulous effort.

Tankryder Jase is another who is starting to make his mark on all things tour. He finished runner up in the Club Champion events, playing in the final group of the MBC on the Sunday. A top 20 finish in the Tattoo Trophy anchored him a fraction, but all signs are there he will be a player to watch in coming seasons.

Robbo's Pocket Rocket had his best season ever in 14 tours. Like Saving Private in BTB16, something clicked, and he was around the top of the table the entire year. In the end he finished 7th in the MVP and took home the Punter of the Year championship. Great stuff.

Teams wise, there was only one this season, the Wranglers winning by 700+pts in only their second year of competition in the big grade. The MVP results reflect this domination with 4 in the MVP Top 10 and 6 in the top 15. The Crocs (THC Premiership runners up) featured 4 in the top 15 but only 1 in the top 5. Their season though was a success, if not a victory.

The Wranglers top player of the season was Craig's Carnival. Roger That Diva (a 3 time winner of the MVP) was the Croc's premier player. Lonhro Leba led from the front for the Cattledogs as their best, while Tankryder Jase and Mustard Keen Matt ran the exacta for the King Browns. Fashioista Greenie perhaps their surprise packet.

In the end though, all honours rest with #66 Benzabear, a worthy champion as the Most Valuable Player of BTB17. His form in our pillar events set up his season, and as the new Shooters skipper, he will now set about compiling a team to challenge for the THC Premiership through the BTB18 Player Draft. One thing is for sure – he knows he's already got one winner!

BTB16 saw a player, team captain and 15-year veteran of the tour have a breakout season like few have seen over the years. And it was all due to an insatiable yearning to lead his team to glory and break the hoodoo of also ran finishes over the seasons.

Saving Private did everything but made good on preseason assertions that the King Browns would be a championship winning team come the tour. And they went oh so close, just losing to the Cattledogs – winning their own maiden premiership – by a measly 25 points. The closest margin in the THC Premiership in BTB history.

While team glory caused him great disappointment, Saving private had a hell of a personal season. Going into the tour long weekend, he sat just outside the top 10 in the MVP race.

He had his best ever season in the BBBs finishing in the Top 12. Yet it was his massive run in May in the POTY that assisted him in setting up his own tilt at glory.

Over the last month of punting, behind closed doors no less where other punters could not see anybody else's results, Saving Private produced his own little piece of magic to move up to third place overall come tools down time. This gave him massive points as the POTY is a group 1 event (like the BBBs 7 MBC) and shot him into contention for the MVP title, albeit needing a big Mum's Bum Cup performance.

With the largest field assembled for the MBC in many years, Saving Private played hard and fast to finish an overall sixth. This was a mighty performance as he led the King Browns from the front. This finish catapulted Saving Private into the top spot as the Most Valuable Player of the Year. Well earned and thoroughly deserved after the best season ever for him personally and the KIng Browns.

Whilst he couldn't quite lift the King Browns to team glory, he had done everything in his power to make it so. Congratulations Ryan on a great season indeed.

It was a family affair at the top of the MVP table, with Saving Private's sire – tour legend Warwick Farm Fella – only missing by 5 points to his son. The second placing wouldn't help shed the 'bridesmaid' tag Wok wore, but it made it the year of the Davies clan in the BTB.

Perennial performers & past winners of the MVP Roger That Diva & Mustard Keen Matt filled out the next two spots, each also having their usual great season.

BTB15 saw a new winning score set by our Most Valuable Player (MVP) across the season – Mustard Keen Matt.

Matt has long been one of the very best competitors during the history of the BTB Tour and not only has he set a new record in winning the MVP, his first, but it is also the first time in the tour's history that a King Brown has taken out this honour. Well done Matt – you certainly did cut the Mustard in BTB15!

Craigsy 80s Dude soared into the top 3 for the MVP for the first time in his BTB career. He finished 4th in BTB11, and another 4 years later managed to crack a podium finish courtesy of a shared Mum's Bum Cup triumph (with Divastating Dave). But that was not all Craigsy did...

In the BBB tipping contest Craigsy finished 2nd. In the POTY event he emerged as the champion for BTB15. Dominated really. He finished second in the group 2 DallyM's and also belonged to the top stable – the Cattledogs Daley Martin stable. He had what you would simply say was a massive season in the Group 1 and Group 2 competitions. As a result, he was crowned Club Champion for BTB15. Another huge award and feather in the cap for Craigsy. Yet, one question remains...why did he not win the MVP for BTB15?

Quite simply, it was the Tattoo Trophy events that sunk him. Craigsy didn't compete in 4 of the 11 events across the season. He won The Masters Golf tipping to end the season, but not collecting points across those 4 events came back to haunt him. It was enough for Mustard to shoot past him in the MVP race. Great season though!

Strength & Johner finished in the Top 3 of the MVP Title race for the third straight season. After winning the MVP in BTB13, John backed it up with a bronze podium finish in BTB14, before doing the same this past season. He was the only real challenger to Mustard Keen Matt & Craigsy 80s Dude for the title. Super consistent effort from Strength & Johner.

IN the individual teams' sections for the season, Strength & Johner was the Crocs best just in front of Roger That Diva. Copy That Condo had a breakout season for the Shooters while Barnesy's Boy Dave (who did not compete in the MBC) was enormous for the canary yellow team. Craigsy 80s Dude & Divastating Dave were an awesome quinella for the Cattledogs while Tankryder Jase and Major Mortar starred for the King Browns behind the one and only BTB15 Most Valuable Player – Mustard Keen Matt.

The BTB14 Most Valuable Player goes to a man who made light work of the field in what was to be his crowning season within the walls of the BTB Tour. Mickaby McKenna.

Affectionately known as 'Captain Croc' Mickaby is one of only two BTB Members who have managed to be on every tour, since the tour's establishment, back in 2009. He is also the longest serving team captain, in charge of the Crocs since BTB5. As captain the Crocs are also easily the most winning-est team of all time in the BTB.

Mickaby took out the cherished Mum's Bum Cup, and after declaring for many years that winning the MBC wasn't important to him, he then proceeded to celebrate like few have. He did this just a few weeks after recovering from a hernia operation. Talk about different style of preparation! Quite remarkable really. Unless of course the hernia operation was a cover for a bionic arm or something...

Over 14 years and 13 tours (Covid claiming one running of the MBC unfortunately) Mick had finally snared his holy grail. The Mum's Bum Cup jacket forever to have his name etched into its green fabric. Not to mention entering rarified air as one of only 13 people in the world to have won golf's unofficial 5th major. Instant legend status in the annals of BTB history.

Mick's season was haloed by the golf tournament victory, but he also did very well in the other contests throughout the season. He won the Spring Champion Tipster contest in Melbourne, as well as The Masters tipping event that ended the season. This last victory would prove pivotal in his run at MVP glory. A handy 4th in the BBBs tipping provided him with great points too. All in all a great season – well done Mickaby.

Divastating Dave had a fabulous season too. The Shooter missed three contests in the Tattoo Trophy, which didn't help his score. He did however win the BBBs tipping and took out the revered Big Marn of the Year award for his services to the Be The Ball Tour.

Strength & Johner followed up his BTB13 MVP title with a gallant run. Finishing in the bronze medal position this time. He performed well in the BBBs & POTY but was a little underwhelming in the MBC. The Tattoo Trophy contest saw him take out the NRL Tipping title while he had very high placings in almost every other competition.

In the teams scoring, Mickaby was the Crocs MVP of course. Divastating Dave the Shooters. Warwick Farm Fella had a huge breakout season to be the Cattledogs most valuable player, while Mustard Keen Matt yet again proved why the King Browns rate him so highly.

The BTB13 Most Valuable Player of the year has gone to Strength & Johner from the Crocs stable. Congratulations John!

As always, it was a hard-fought season spanning 48 weeks, culminating in the Mum's Bum Cup Top Gun Tour to Broadbeach, Qld.

Strength & Johner put together an excellent season that saw him finish with 420.5pts across all the competitions competed for throughout the year. Theses included the 4 'pillar trophies and every Tattoo Trophy event conducted.

In the pillar events John picked up handy points in the BBBs tipping, finishing third overall behind champion Craigsy 80s Dude and Cryan Out Loud. He finished well in both the Mum's Bum Cup and Punter of the Year, which gave him a solid base.

It was the Tattoo Trophy where he would eventually gain an edge of Cryan Out Loud (BTB13 Mum's Bum Cup champion).

There were 10 events in the Ironman Decathlon that is the Tattoo Trophy, and Strength & Johner competed hard in every one of them. Cryan Out Loud and Barnesy's Boy Dave both scored zeroes in 4 of the events, thus giving John a distinct advantage. And he took it and ran with both hands and both legs!

John finished 4th overall in the Tattoo Trophy for the season (behind champion Mustard Keen Matt) but won 2 of the events out of ten. The AFL Tipping and Spring Tipster Champion Supercoach competition. He also finished third in the Melbourne Cup Day tipping competition. There was barely an event where John did not get at least double points throughout the Tattoo Trophy competition – the NRL Supercoach a particularly lean return in what is normally one of his pet events.

In the end though, it didn't matter. His combined efforts over the season see him duly crowned and thoroughly deserving of the BTB13 MVP Player of the Year.

In the teams' results, the Shooters player of the year was captain Cryan Out Loud. It was a captain once again – Lonhro Leba – who lead home the Cattledogs. While the King Browns, another poor season overall, had perennial achiever Mustard Keen Matt prove once again his value. Strength & Johner obviously the Crocs player of the year.

GFARYOUS STUFF

CRAIGSY 80s DUDE

The BTB11 Most Valuable Player of the year award goes to none other than HENDOMONIUM. He proved to be the most valuable player over the course of the season, just beating out fellow Shooter Cryan Out Loud, with Shooters' captain – Gearyous Stuff – making it a top 3 gold wash for the Shooters team!

And what a year it was for the Shooters team as a whole. For the first time in the history of the Be The Ball Tour, a team other than the Mickaby McKenna lead Crocs, took home the TRY HARDER CUP as the champion team of the year.

Hendo and Cryan fought out the Club Champion race, with Cryan just getting the nod by 2 points here courtesy of a runner up placing in the Mum's Bum Cup. Hendo on the other hand finished very high up, right across the board, collecting big points in all events as well as being named the Big Marn of the Year.

Therefore, the MVP Player of the Year would come down to who performed the best in the Tattoo Trophy events. There were 6 played across the season.

Hendomonium's best result was 2nd in the Autumn Tipster Championship. He also did well in the Spring Champion Tipster. Horse racing obviously his thing!

Meanwhile, Cryan Out Loud, did not take part in 3 of the events. This would prove costly in his pursuit of overall victory.

At the end of season's play, with all Pillar Trophy contests etc (Club Champion) and Tattoo Trophy events all included, it would prove to be the year of the Hendo. A worthy winner. Well done Hendomonium – MVP of BTB11.

Hendomonium obviously took out the Shooters MVP award. Crouching Glyn – the MBC champion – Crocs. Schubey Doo was the Cattledogs best player. Mustard Keen Matt the beacon of light & hope for the long last King Browns.

The BTB10 Most Valuable Player of the year award is taken out by ROGER THAT DIVA, who only just held out brother and Croc captain, Mickaby McKenna. It is a great rarity indeed when brothers run first and second in any competition, let alone over the course of an arduous 48-week season. Well done to Roger of course and his little bro!

BTB10 saw the first major Anniversary milestone that ended in a zero. The actual tour itself was held on the glorious Sunshine Coast in Queensland, where the weather that greeted us was exceptional. Officially title the 'Bo Derek 10 Tour' and for records purposes Maroochydore. This was the second time we had ventured into the Sunshine Coast (the first being in BTB3).

It was huge year for Roger, taking out not only the top award in the BBBs Tipping contest, but also romping home in the Punter of the Year competition as well. Not bad – nabbing 2 of the Big 4 Pillar events in the one season! He also grabbed a bronze medal placing in the DallyM's Group 2 event. All contributing massively to his points haul.

Mickaby also had an enormous season. He finished 3rd in the Mum's Bum Cup and same in the Punter of the Year. It was the Tattoo Trophy events though where Mickaby McKenna could not guite match big brother Roger. Both completed all events on the schedule for the season, but Roger had a bigger finish in the NRL Tipping. This was the major difference.

Schubey Doo showed he was a force to be reckoned with, finishing 3rd and all up just 12 points from the winner. He finished second in the NRL Tipping and same in the A League soccer tipping comp. The first and probably last time this tipping comp will be held as part of the Tattoo Trophy calendar. Schubey also polled good points in all of the Pillar Trophy events but not quite sneaking into the placings. All in all it was a very consistent you from Schubey Doo.

Looking at the teams, the Crocs best players were Roger That Diva and Mickaby McKenna. Divastating Dave shone for the Shooters, while of course it was Schubey Doo who barked the loudest in the Cattledogs kennel in their first season in the Be The Ball Tour.

First year for the King Browns too. Captain Saving Private lead from the front.

BTB9 saw the final season of just the Crocs versus the Shooters in all things Be The Ball. The Most Valuable Player for that season was indeed a Croc – the Crocs having being undefeated by the Shooters since the battle began way back in BTB5 – none other than Manscaper Nads.

It wasn't all one-way traffic though, Crocs teammate Mustard Keen Matt pushing Manscaper Nads all the way – but it was decisive enough. An excellent 24 point victory.

Nads dominated by being the Punter of the Year and finishing 3rd in the Big Basket Bet tipping comp. Two of the major Pillar events that hold up the BTB Tour. He also finished second overall in the Tattoo Trophy section of the MVP race.

Mustard Keen Matt pipped Nads in the Tattoo Trophy events, finishing first, but it wasn't enough as he didn't do well enough in the tipping and punting.

Where Mustard did do very well was the golf. Mustard Keen Matt being the BTB9 Mum's Bum Cup champion.

In what were atrocious conditions on the Gold Coast for the final round of the Mum's Bum Cup, Mustard was the one who held on best in the wet, beating Divastating Dave by less than a stroke on re-jigged handicaps.

The conditions were that poor the final 3 holes had to be cancelled with handicap adjustments. In the end Mustard donned the green jacket much to Diva Dave's chagrin. What could have been? We'll never know.

Shooters top player was taken out by Craig's Carnival.

BTB8 saw the first time in tour history that tours were made to the same area in consecutive years. The Breakfast Creek Tour going back to back up Brisbane way. Our Most Valuable Player for the season was Roger That Diva who won nicely from brother Mickaby McKenna as the Crocs continued their romp as the champion team.

As far as the Pillar contests were concerned it was ROGER THAT DIVA who proved too strong, winning the Mum's Bum Cup. Roger was also the BTB8 Big Marn of the Year award winner. A worthy recipient for what is basically our Clubman of the year award. These were in fact the pillars that gave Roger That Diva an MVP season.

Mickaby McKenna finished in second place to elder brother Roger. The sibling rivalry alive and well even in our later years! Mickaby had a very consistent year over all categories, without claiming victory in an individual event. He did however lead the all-conquering Crocs to their 4th Try Harder Cup in a row. Perhaps can build a dynasty to rival that of the 1960's St George Dragons teams?

Manscaper Nads made it a Crocs clean sweep of the podium. Nads performed especially well in the Tattoo Trophy tipping and fantasy events, claiming victory after winning the NRL Tipping and being runner up in the Autumn Tipster championship and Big Bash Supercoach tournaments.

As far as the teams' events were concerned, it was a no contest as the Crocs romped home decisively yet again. The top Crocs players were the same as the overall players – Roger That Diva from Mickaby McKenna from Manscaper Nads.

The Shooters had a tough season, but their standout players were Craigsy 80s Dude and Craig's Carnival, both finishing in 4th and 5th place overall for MVP honours.

BTB7 saw Captain Croc lead from the front and take out the Most Valuable Player of the Year award.

Mickaby McKenna had a very strong season overall, excelling in the Mum's Bum Cup where he finished third and picked up plenty of points. His form across the other Pillar events was also strong, although missing placings, he was not far behind every time.

Mickaby finished 5th overall in the Tattoo Trophy events, finishing in the placings or close to once more to epitomize the strength of a consistent season. A very well-deserved victory.

Craig's Carnival lead the Shooters charge, which as a team, was no doubt hampered by the withdrawal of players for the actual tour itself. It essentially rendered the Mum's Bum Cup to the mercy of the Crocs, but Craig's Carnival was able to withstand the pressure from Warwick Farm Fella and Mickaby McKenna to claim his maiden green jacket win.

Carnival's tilt at the MVP faltered with the POTY where he did horribly, the points achieved by Mickaby Mckenna driving a nail into Carnival's aspirations and elevating himself to the number one spot. It was a fabulous contest over the course of the season.

Crouching Glyn Hidden Dragon swept into third spot also off the back of just pure consistency. There were no big scalps by Glyn, but he just performed well right across the BTB year. Nicely done.

As for the team's event, the Crocs dominated once again to make it a three-peat across the first 3 seasons of the new teams format (started BTB5 Cairns).

The Crocs were helped considerably by their numbers advantage on the actual golf course. This tilted victory their way after many of the Shooters members had very good MVP seasons.

4 of the top 6 spots were filled by Crocs players though, with captain Mickaby McKenna having a season not to forget across the board.

BTB6 saw the beginning of what would be a very fruitful few years for #38 Roger That Diva.

The BTB6 season saw the tour go south for the first time, with Melbourne hosting what would be a truly cold and at times wet experience. Growling frog golf course on the Saturday led into the beautiful Peninsular golf course on the Sunday. This was a true battle of attrition.

Over the course of the season, it would be Roger That Diva who would prove victorious. He was incredibly consistent over all things BTB and thoroughly deserved to do the MVP crown.

Roger led the charge for the Crocs. Yet he didn't have things all of his own way. Barnesy's Boy Dave finished second just a handful of points away. What cost 'Cambo' in the end was not entering some of the Tattoo Trophy events. A decision that would ultimately cost him the title of BTB6 MVP.

Third spot went to one of only two members who have had their call sign changed over the history of the BTB Tour. Originally Augusta Masters, it was his penchant for his head bobbing up over hills on his first tour that led Bonecrusher Brad to christen him 'The Meerkat'. The rest is history.

Augusta Meerkat had a great season, finishing third, and one of the only guiding lights for a Shooters team that could never quite assert any dominance over their foe. In fact, in the top 6 final MVP placings, only one Shooter could make any impact – The Meerkat.

As for the team's event, the Crocs won by 142 points overall (3,542 to 3,400). Aside form the top 2 quinella of Roger & Barnesy's Boy Dave – it was Manscaper Nads & Cryan Out Loud having super seasons.

For the Shooters and captain Gearyous Stuff, it was back to the drawing board. They tried hard but would need a good off season if they were going to challenge for any titles individually and collectively.

In the end though, to the victor go the spoils and Roger That Diva and the Crocs were crowned champions of the Reservoir Dogs season.
